—An aligator about three feet in length that has been domiciled for several days at a Poplar street drug store has been visiting around the neighborhood to the great terror of nervous people. The distinguished member of the saurian family came from New Orleans, and being a stranger, yet possessing a genial disposition, has been visiting around endeavoring to get acquainted with the neighbors. Yesterday morning it was found in a neighbor's kitchen, having taken up quarters under the stove. Its visits do not seem to meet with that generous reception usually given strangers by Memphians.

The many friends of Mr. George Robertson, late secretary and treasurer of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, will be pained to hear of his death. He died quite suddenly on Thursday last, at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, where he had gone for the benefit of his health. We understand his remains are now on their way to Memphis, and they will probably be taken by special train to Hernando, Mississippi, for interment, on Tuesday next; and due notice will be given to all friends who may wish to attend the funeral. He was for many years an actthe funeral. He was for many years an active Odd-Fellow, and attained to the high distinction of grand master of that benevolent institution, and it is likely his brethren will attend his funeral in a body.
